The 4th Bangkok International Adult Congenital Cardiology Symposium: and RVOT Workshop

21st - 22nd January 2019
Eastin Grand Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand

Dear colleagues and friends,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we would like to invite you to join our 4th Bangkok International Adult Congenital Cardiology Symposium during Jan 21-22, 2019 at Eastin Grand Hotel.

As you are aware, many patients with congenital heart disease have survived and grown up into adulthood. They encounter with emerging clinical problems to be solved. This field is evolving with recently published 2018 AHA/ACC Guideline for Management of Adult with Congenital Heart Disease. Therefore, our first day of this meeting is intended to integrate the current ACHD guideline and current clinical practice particularly in this region. The format of the meeting would encourage a mutual and close exchanges of information and knowledge among the attendants. While the secondary of the symposium will be focus on the management of the right ventricular outflow tract.

Prof. Jamil Aboulhosn had accepted our invitation to be our guest speaker. Apart from being the director of UCLA Adult Congenital Heart Center, Dr. Aboulhosn is also the chairman for the Global Research Working Group for International Society of Adult Congenital Heart Disease and coauthor of the 2018 AHA/ACC Guideline for Management of Adult with Congenital Heart Disease.

We hope you will be able to join our meeting and make great contribution of ACHD care in this region.

Sincerely,
Alisa Limsuwan, MD
Mann Chandavimol, MD
Tarinee Tangcharoen, MD
Tawai Ngernsritrakul, MD
